The surrounding lush greenery and the thunderous sound of cascading water create a captivating symphony of nature, inviting visitors to immerse themselves in this enchanting environment. Whether you're visiting during the vibrant rainy season or the calmer dry months, Wachirathan Waterfall offers an unforgettable experience, captivating the hearts of all who witness its beauty.

Lunch at the restaurant.

Venture to the Twin Royal Pagodas, Napamethanidol and Napapolpumisiri, nestled atop a high hill within Doi Inthanon National Park. Phra Mahathat Napamethanidol was built to honor and pay homage to Phra Bat Somdet Phra Paraminthra Maha Bhumibol Adulyadej Rama IX during the auspicious celebration of His Majesty the King's 5th cycle birthday in 1987. Similarly, Phra Mahathat Naphaphonphumisiri was constructed as an offering to Her Majesty Queen Sirikit during the celebrations of Her Majesty the Queen's 5th cycle birthday in 1992, with the collaboration of the Air Force and the Thai people. The pagodas are set amidst splendid winter flower gardens and a diverse array of plants, creating a picturesque landscape. From this vantage point, you'll be treated to breathtaking panoramic views, considered among the most beautiful viewpoints in Chiang Mai. The cool weather prevailing throughout the year enhances this delightful experience.

Continue your adventure to the summit of Doi Inthanon, the highest peak in Thailand, soaring at an altitude of 2,565 meters above sea level. As part of the Thanon Thongchai Mountain range, which extends from the Himalayas through several countries, including Nepal, Bhutan, and Myanmar, this region boasts a rich tapestry of climate and forest types. As you ascend, you'll traverse rainforests, pine forests, and mixed forests, each offering a unique ecological experience.
